The election next Tuesday will be a 40,000 volt shock to the Dockery family. It will lay out several of them at one swipe.

The report comes from Cuba that the Cubans are "clamoring for office." Another proof that the Cubans are becoming Americanized.

According to the latest statistics there are 86,860 bachelors to 70,642 spinsters in North Carolina or 7,218 fellows who couldn't get a wife on a divide without taking a second hand one.

A Philadelphia contemporary asks: "Is a man known by the company he keeps?" Well, not always. We have sometimes seen very respectable sheriffs in very bad company.

There is a clock in Brussells which is wound up by the wind. There are lots of American statesmen who run by wind. Maron Butler is not very capacious, but he can pump enough into him to run him about four hours.

Rocky Mount Butler devotes much of his speeches to lauding Governor Russell. We expect that if Governor Russell expressed his candid opinion he would pronounce Butler as arrant a fraud as Office Hunter Dockery.

Senator Kyle, Populist, of South Dakota, rises to declare "I repudiate the Populist party management in this State." Kyle ought to shake with the anti-machine Populists of North Carolina, for that is what thousands of them have done.

Prestonsburg, Ky., has a festive female, only 22 years old has in four years made her fifth venture in matrimony. She was first married at 18. Two husbands died, she was divorced from the third, and separated from the fourth by mutual consent.

Candidate Roosevelt has overdone the Rough Rider racket and the glory business, and by his vainglorious assumption and egotism has disgusted many soldiers who hold that there were others in the Santiago business besides Teddy. It was just a case of too much cheek and buncoing under the flag.

The fusion machine managers at Raleigh utilized the negro Steptoe to play their game on Buck Kitchin, but they take mighty good care not to step on Buck's toes themselves. Governor Vance was once asked if Buck would fight. "Fight!" said he; "why, he would fight a rattlesnake, and give the snake the first bite."

When Office Hunter Dockery addresses negroes in meetings he does not address them as "d—d monkeys." That's only the way he has of referring to them in private conversation when none of them are around. In the estimation of Office Hunter Dockery, however, the vote of a "d—d monkey" is as good as any other vote for all practical purposes.

N. A. Dunning, who several years ago figured as an Alliance leader in Washington before he sold out to McKinley, has emerged from obscurity claiming to have written a number of speeches for Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, for which he has never been able to get pay, although he has been persistently dunning him. He threatens to quit dunning and try suing.

When John Niles, the Harvard, Conn., cyclist, goes out to take a spin now he does not scorch. He scorched some time ago, ran over a woman, and then got scorched by a jury who, on suit of the woman, assessed him $2,500 damages and gave her husband a judgment for $1,250 for medical expenses.

There are ten women who claim as their husband a man in Chicago, but none of them can get him for he is in jail. Lucky fellow to be beyond the reach of ten wives.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

— Mr. Henry Clark Bridgers, of Tarboro, is registered at The Orton.

— Mr. N. O. Messenger, of the Washington Star, is in the city and gave the STAR office a pleasant call last night. He is here to keep his paper posted on the situation.

Mr. E. P. Boll, representing the Chicago Record, arrived here yesterday to investigate the situation and will remain in the city until the election. He was a welcome caller at the STAR office last night.

— Prof. M. C. S. Noble, professor of Pedagogics in the University of North Carolina and late superintendent of the Wilmington public schools, arrived yesterday and will be here until the election and vote for white supremacy.

—The host of admiring friends of A. G. Ricaud, Esq., who has been here the past several days, regret very much that he will return to his recently adopted New York home this morning. Wilmington will always claim Mr. Ricaud as a son, take deep interest in his welfare, and extend a cordial welcome whenever he visits his erstwhile home.

There May be Surprises.

The result of the election may agreeably disappoint the most sanguine Democrats as to the majority. This will not be less than 8000 for the Judicial ticket, and it may be a great deal larger. One of the surprises may be the election of Six Democratic Congressmen. Another pleasant surprise will be the number of State Senators, and Representatives elected in the counties composing the Sixth Congressional District. This is something that will be specially gratifying to the STAR.

Sheriff Hewlett's Case.

The case of the State of North Caroline on the relation T. Jeff Smith against Sheriff Elijah Hewlett, for farming out his office to G. Z. French, the depositions in which were to have been taken by A. J. Marshall, Esq. yesterday at 10 o'clock, has been postponed again until next Saturday, Nov. 12th, at the same hour. The postponement was made on account of the continued illness of Sheriff Hewlett, who is unable to be present. The list of attorneys in the case has been previously given in the STAR.

A Great Time Expected.

Invitations were received here yesterday by Capt. J. M. McGowan, Col. W. J. Woodward and Mr. H. E. Bonitz, as members of the D. O. K. K., or sixth order of K. of P., asking that they attend the convention of that order at Charlotte on the 17th inst. The invitation says that "full twenty Tyros will be at the mercy of Mokenna and Rough Riders." Capt. McGowan, Col. Woodward and Mr. Bonitz are the only members of the order in Wilmington.

Elect the Senator.

The State Senate may be so evenly divided that a Democratic Senator from New Hanover and Brunswick may give the white men control of that body. In order to make certain the election of our candidate, William J. Davis, it is necessary that every Democratic vote be polled. All depends on New Hanover. Work next Tuesday with the same energy that has been shown throughout the campaign. To the polls!

OVER IN BROOKLYN.

A Little Difficulty Last Night That Caused Some Apprehension.

NEGROES MAKING TROUBLE.

Street Cars Stoned—Window Glass Broken—Arrests Made by Police Officers—Precautions Taken to Prevent Disturbances.

An unusual wave of excitement and apprehension swept over the city last night about 11 o'clock, when it became known that a difficulty whih gave promise of developing into a serious race trouble had arisen in the First Ward at the corner of Fourth and Nixon streets. It was reported that full 200 negroes were assembled there and making violent threats because of a claimed grievance

An investigation showed that about 10 o'clock street car No. 5, with Motorman Finch and Conductor Shaw, stopped at the corner of Fourth and Nixon streets and a white man, carrying a repeating rifle, stepped off the car on his way home. A number of negroes (probably twenty) were standing on the corner talking in an excited manner. One of them asked the white man if he was a red shirt. He replied that he was, whereupon they moved towards him as though to make an attack. The man's rifle was wrapped up and he commenced to tear away the paper, when several rocks were thrown by negroes in the crowd. The stones went wide of their aim and one narrowly missed the head of Motorman Finch. Another struck the street car with considerable force.

The conductor signaled for his car to start back toward the city but had not gone far when Mr. W. V. Hudson, head conductor of the railway system, came from his home near by and investigated the trouble. As he was getting upon the car some of the negroes began to cast stones at him and the car, declaring that they would stop the cars from running. A negro also drew a pistol as though to fire upon Mr. Hudson.

The car proceeded a little away further on its return trip and came up with police officers Kuhl and Sheehan. Mr. Hudson returned to the scene of the row with the officers and pointed out the negro who drew the pistol and also took part in casting the stones. He proved to be Frank Thompson, employed at the Champion Cotton Compress. He was put under arrest and carried to the guard house. This greatly infuriated the other negroes, who began to make violent threats. They claimed that Thompson should not have been arrested. The crowd increased rapidly for a while and it was this condition which caused the general apprehension of a general trouble. However, several of the most influential peaceable negroes mingled with the crowd and their efforts combined with those of the officers finally caused them to disperse.

It was discovered that during the time the stones were being cast at the street car and the "red shirts" several window glass in the front of R. F. Sellers' store were broken and the door badly battered. The negro Thompson denies that he threw a rock or drew a pistol. He said he had a pistol but it was broken. It is in the hands of the police and is in good condition. They took it from his person.

Prominent Citizens Investigated.

A party of prominent citizens visited the vicinity of last night's trouble at Fourth and Nixon streets, between 1 and 2.30 o'clock this morning, and are indignant at the conditions their investigation revealed. They report that they discovered from good authority that despite the fact that such riotous conditions prevailed while the cars and white men were being attacked there were at no time more than three policemen on the scene, and one of those, E. D. George, was armed with nothing but a billy. The other two were H. R. Kuhl and W. W. Howell. They told these gentlemen that they telephoned for more help and instructions but received none save that Sergeant Hewlett and Lieutenant Lossen came over for a while and promised to send reinforcements and orders but never did.

It was learned that the negroes openly made threats that they would kill Head Conductor Hudson and others before morning. And that they also boasted that their children all had matches and bottles of kerosene, knew how to use them and would run some women out of their homes before morning. Pistols were promiscuously displayed and four Winchesters were seen. The chief of police, says these gentlemen, knew of this condition and only one extra policeman was sworn in and that was George, who was provided with only a billy and sent to the scene of the trouble. The police also knew that a number of families left that part of the city, being afraid to remain there. Others were locked in their houses and afraid to come out. This condition of affairs, they say, reigned, and yet there were only three officers in the entire section of the city beyond the railroad.

An effort was made to find the Mayor so that he might take the matter in hand and provide protection, but he could not be found. They report that they searched at the hotels, at his home, at the city hall, and even went to the gambling dive on Front street, but he was nowhere to be found. There is much indignation expressed.

Other Incidents.

About 11 o'clock last night some negroes threw stones at a street car in charge of Motorman Varney Gilbert. The car was passing up Princess street near Sixth street and the stones were thrown from the alley near Dr. Harris' office. A stone narrowly missed Gilbert's head.

As a matter of precaution the Wilmington Light Infantry remained at their armory all last night for fear of some outbreak. A large per cent. of the Naval Reserves also slept by their arms at the Reserves' armory.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Bars Closed Until After Election and 100 Special Policemen Authorized at Called Meeting Yesterday.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Wilmington was held yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the City Hall, Mayor S. P. Wright presiding. The following Aldermen were noted present: Messrs. Gore, Keith, Morrill, Norwood and Hewlett. The reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting was dispensed with and Mayor Wright stated that the object of the special session was to frame and adopt a resolution regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors on, immediately preceding, and the day after election.

To this end, on motion, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Be it ordained, by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, N. C., and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to sell or give away in the City of Wilmington, or within one mile of the same, any whiskey, wine, beer, ale, brandy or other intoxicating drinks between 11.30 o'clock P. M., Saturday, November 5th, 1898, and November 10th, at 6 o'clock A. M.

Any person convicted of violating this Ordinance shall be fined not exceeding Fifty Dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Ratified and adopted this 5th day of November, 1898, at 1 P. M.

In addition to this precaution for the public safety, upon the motion of Alderman Gore, the Mayor was authorized to appoint 100 special policemen on the day of election to preserve order and maintain the peace.

These policemen have not yet been appointed, and it is understood that the selections will be made regardless of party and that the business men will be asked to make recommendations in the matter.

The action of the Board in this matter is commended by all well meaning people, and if the provisions of the ordinance are carried out strictly it will greatly lessen the probability of any trouble on election day.

NOT AWARDED YET.

Some Matters of Detail as to Bids and Contracts for the Denmark-Robbins Extension Pending.

Mr. J. R. Kenly, general manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, told a STAR reporter yesterday afternoon that the matter of awarding the contract for the construction of the Denmark-Robbins extension of the Manchester and Augusta railroad, now a part of the Atlantic Coast Line system, is still pending.

Some matters of detail as to bids and specifications have not been fully settled, and it is this that prevents any announcement as to who will really get the contract. A good many of the contractors whose presence here was noted in yesterday's STAR are still here to guard the interests of their companies. It will, says Mr. Kenly, probably be Tuesday or Wednesday of this week before any announcement as to the contract can be made.

TWO CASES YESTERDAY.

That Was The Record With The Down Town Justices Yesterday.

Robert Williams, one of the witnesses, who has been attending U. S. Court here, was araigned on a charge of larceny before Justice Fowler yesterday. The affidavit was made by another court witness, Alva Lawson, and the charge was for stealing $8 from him while he was asleep in one of the hotels here. The case was adjudged a frivolous prosecution and dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

Justice Bunting bound Jane Watson over to the Criminal Court on a charge of wilful injury to personal property.

J. S. Eron, a furniture man, sold the woman a bill of furniture on the instalment plan. The payment ceased and Mr. Eron sent for the furniture. At this instance, the Watson woman, proceeded to break it all to smash. She gave the bond and was dismissed

After the services, the remains were tenderly carried to Bellevue cemetery, where all that was mortal of this good woman and Christian lady was laid to rest.

Hit Him With a Spittoon.

John Odom was arrested and locked up last night by Sergeant Hewlett for making an assault on Mr. Ben Turlington. It seems that the two men became involved in a quarrel in some way and that Odom snatched up a spittoon from the floor of Mr. Bellamy's drug store, near where the row occurred, and dealt Mr. Turlington a severe blow over the head, breaking the spittoon and cutting an ugly gash in his head. He will appear before Mayor Wright Monday to answer for his misconduct.

— Hon. C. B. Aycock, who spoke at Whiteville yesterday, arrived here last night and is registered at The Orton.

THE COLONIAL DAMES

Regular Meetings For the Fall and Winter Resumed by the Society.

AN INTERESTING REPORT

Concert Yesterday Afternoon by Miss Chasten's Music Pupils—The Marchison--Carter Marriage in New York.

The regular meetings of the North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames for the Fall and Winter season have been resumed and the ladies have selected the old Colonial mansion of the DeRosset estate, corner Market and Third streets, as their rendezvous. The STAR is indebted to the talented historian of the society for a very excellent report of the last meeting of the society. It is as follows:

The first meeting of the North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames since their adjournment on May 25th, was held at the residence of the president last Wednesday afternoon.

The recording secretary read a notice from the New York Times, to the effect that the Council of the Colonial Dames, through the treasurer, Miss Nickkolas, of Washington, has made a report of its relief work among the soldiers during the war, which shows a total sum of $14,618.11, received from the societies of the different States. Of this sum the North Carolina society contributed a very creditable share.

Disbursements aggregating $12,794.07 were made as follows:

For hospital ships—Solace, $1,450; Relief, $1,350; Bay State, $186.05; Missouri, $350; patrol fleet, $100.

For hospitals—Maryland, $250; Chickamauga, $600; Fort Monroe, $1,088.50; Miami, $400; Fort McPherson, $500; Charleston, $100; Montauk Point, $193; Dixie, $50; Key West, $1,000; Camp Myer, $50; Camp Alger, $100; Camp McCalla, $100.

For general relief work for soldiers and their families, $4,526.52.

This article from the Times shows that the Dames have not been idle, but have nobly fulfilled their offer of aid to the country in its time of need.

The principal business before the meeting Wednesday was the selection of an assembly room for the coming year. The unanimous voice was for a room in the colonial mansion belonging to the DeRosset estate, on the corner of Market and Third streets, and a committee was appointed to apply for the same and report at the next meeting.

Three very interesting circular letters—from the New Jersey, the District of Columbia and the New York societies—were then read. The letter from the New York Society gave an interesting report of the celebration, on the 27th of May last, of the 250th anniversary of the landing of Gov. Peters Stuyvesant on the island of Manhattan. The door of the Van Courtland manor house was opened on that occasion for the first time. The Rev. Edward B. Coe, pastor of the Old Dutch Church of New York, stood with our president on the ancient porch and offered a prayer. An address of welcome by our president and addresses by several distinguished guests followed. Then there was a presentation of a beautiful American flag, given by one of our members, an elaborate set of early Dutch, French, English and Colonial-American flags given by the Sons of the Revolution.

Copies of the minutes of the Council of the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America, held at Washington, D. C., last April, were distributed at the meeting, Wednesday, to the members present.

After the meeting adjourned a meeting of the Board of Managers took place during which several names of applicants for membership, in non-Colonial States were presented and acted upon. The meeting then adjourned.

The pupils of Miss Cannie Chasten entertained another company of friends yesterday afternoon in Schubert Hall, Miss Chasten's studio. The occasion was another of those delightful Saturday afternoon recitals which are to be of weekly occurrence during the present season. Each of the five participants acquitted themselves admirably, reflecting great credit upon themselves and their efficient instructor. The following was the programme rendered:

Sonata Op. 27, No 2.....Beethoven.
Adagio, Allegretto.
Miss Ida Brown.
Mazurka in C. Major.....Porter.
Miss Katie Sheetz.
Staccato Etude.....Rubinstein.
Miss Bessie Burtt.
Nocturne in E Flat Op. 9 No 2. Chopin.
Miss Marcella Shrier.
Scherzo, from Sonata Op, No. 3. Beethoven.
Master James Craft.

The New York papers announce the marriage of Miss Jessie Murchison, the charming daughter of Mr. Kenneth Murchison, to Mr. Shirley Carter, of Baltimore, the ceremony having been performed at the home of the bride, 46 West Fifth Seventh street, Thursday at 4:30 P. M. Rev. Robt. H. Payne, of Baltimore, performed the ceremony.

The decorations were pure white; rare varieties of chyrsanthmums being the prevailing flower.

The bride's costume is described as especially elegant and was white satin trimmed with bow knots set with pearls and rhinestones. She wore a point applique veil and diamond ornaments. Miss Marie Murchison was maid of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter are now on a bridal tour and will make Baltimore their home. The bride's father owns the Orton plantation and other extensive property here, and the family spends much of the Winter season on the plantation. The bride has a host of admiring friends here who wish for her all the happiness possible.

To City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

COLUMBUS AROUSED.

Two Thousand People at the White Men's Rally at Whiteville—Many Former Populists in the Parade.

[Special Star Telegram.]

WHITEVILLE, N. C., Nov 5.—Hon. C. B. Aycock spoke to two thousand people to-day. One hundred Red Shirts paraded and filled the town with shouts of joy at the prospect of Columbus being redeemed from the rule and ruin of Fusion. Many men who formerly were Populists were in the parade and are now working zealously for the Democratic ticket. The Fusion forces are disorganized and scattered. Among all the vast assembly here to day it was difficult to find any white man who would admit that he would support Fusion. Many ladies listened with rapt attention to the masterly eloquence of Mr. Aycock. The seven gunners from Wilmington were on hand with their cannon and livened up the people with its booming.

The Democrats are jubilant over their certainty of carrying Columbus county and placing it once more in the Democratic column by a hand some majority next Tuesday.

A FUSIONIST CONSPIRACY.

Republican Chairman of the Registration Board at Maxton Arrested for Withholding the Registration Book.

[Special Star Telegram.]

MAXTON, November 5.—When the Precinct Board met here to-day to consider challenges it was found that B. F. McLean, Republican chairman of the Board of Registrars, was absent and the book could not be found. Upon statements made by W. A. Lowe, Populist registrar, a warrant was issued for McLean, who was arrested upon the arrival of the Wilmington train. He waived examination and was held in two hundred dollar bail; J. M. Burke, D. A. Patterson and Ang. Shaw and others becoming security The Precinct Board organized to-day by electing W. S. McNair chairman, who demanded the custody of the registration book of McLean to-night, but was refused. The people are highly wrought up over the apparent conspiracy of the Fusionists to commit fraud.

Ward Meetings.

The First and Second divisions of the Fifth Ward held a joint meeting with the First Ward at Democratic Headquarters last night. Several speeches were made by prominent men to the large gathering of enthusiastic Democrats present. Col. [illegible] Taylor was among the speakers and made one of the best addresses of the night. It was conservative, yet firm and decisive and was of the kind that counts in "stirring times" like these. Much interest was manifested in the local political outlook and the wards are expected to poll a full vote Tuesday.

Weekly Health Report.

The records in the office of Dr. W. D. McMillan, Superintendent of Health, show that for the week just ended there were 10 deaths, 4 of which were white and 6 colored. Death resulted in these cases from the following causes: Heart disease, 1; consumption, 1; pneumonia, 1; mal nutrition 1; convulsions, 1; from unknown causes 4. The records show for the same period, that there were ten births, five white and five colored.

Don't Fail to be There.

Monday night there will be a joint meeting of all the White Government Unions of Wilmington at the Court House. Business of very great importance will be transacted. It is the special request of the campaign managers that the chairmen of all the Unions make a special effort to have a full attendance of their organizations. Turn out, white men, and make this, the last meeting of the campaign, the largest and most enthusiastic of them all.

DON'T THEY?

In his speech at Charlotte last Saturday Cy Thompson said "the negro does not want to rule in North Carolina. All he asks is fair treatment." It isn't quite clear what the Hon. Cy Thompson means by fair treatment. He would hardly deny that as to the opportunities for earning a living, accumulating property when he is thrifty, and for bettering his condition materially, intellectually, morally, &c., the negro has received "fair treatment," so that this reference must be to political treatment. The negro has not been denied the right to vote in this State, so that when we come down to the essence it must be to the holding of office that the Hon. Cy refers. And then the question arises as to what the Hon. Cy and the negro would consider fair treatment in the matter of office holding? Would they be content with such offices as the white bosses would allow them, the little plums, while the white bosses scooped all the big ones? If that is what Cy means by "fair treatment" then his colored associates would not be satisfied with that arrangement, of which they have given abundant proof since the mongrel party now in power has knuckled to them as it has. But the negroes themselves, who are the best qualified to speak for their race, and the best authority as to their aspirations and intentions have time and again negatived the Hon. Cy's assertion.

Didn't the sable national legislator, George Circus White, give his white co-partners distinctly to understand, in his speech in the late Republican State convention, that the negroes were not satisfied with the progress they had made in grabbing offices but that they would have more offices, and keep on reaching out for them?

Didn't he tell his white associates that he proposed to run the business on the color line, that they might govern themselves accordi nd either fight on his line or get into some other camp?

Didn't he plainly tell them by this that as the negroes constitute the bulk of the voters in the Republican party, and as the Republican party had been a stickler for "manhood suffrage" that the negro is legitimately entitled to the larger part of the honors and emoluments?

That is precisely what George meant, and he is now demanding to be returned to Congress on the color line. All the appeals that are being made in his behalf to the voters of his district are made on that line, and the fact that he is a negro is being used as the cardinal reason why negroes should vote for him.

There's "Prof." Ike Smith, of Newbern, too. He will not be content with being chosen as a member of the Legislature and taking a hand in ruling North Carolina, but aspires, like his colored brother, White, to go to Congress to take a hand in governing the United States. Ike is nursing that ambition now and is holding himself in training for the Congressional race in his district two years hence. If George and Ike, why not some more of them?

When there was some talk by the white bosses in Craven county making an effort to get Ike to resign his legislative aspirations, didn't Ike come back at them with the rock-bottom declaration that the Republican party of Craven county was "like a joint stock company, in which the negroes hold 95 per cent. of the stock," and are therefore entitled to run the company and elect the officers they see fit to elect?

Being one of the 95 per cent. stockholders, Ike declined to come down in favor of one of the 5 per cent. fellows.

As a matter of reasoning Ike's position is logically a sound one, and logically it applies with as much consistency and force to the Republican party of North Carolina as it does to the Republican party of Craven county. There are 120,000 black voters in the Republican party of North Carolina to 30,000 white voters—four to one—so hat the colored sovereign holds 80 per cent. of the stock in the State "joint stock company" and from Ike's contention should hold 80 per cent. of the honors and emoluments. Is there anybody who is unsophisticated simpleton enough to suppose that he wouldn't go for the 80 per cent. if he thought he could successfully make the grab?

Does not Collector Dancy, who transacts the business of his office by proxy while he is out stumping, boldly assert that in accordance with Jeffersonian doctrine the majority should rule, and that therefore where the negroes are in the majority they have the right to rule and should rule? Having the right to rule, as this advocate, who has the reputation of being the best-equipped and ablest representative of the negro in North Carolina, contends, will they be content with the mere declaration of that right, and not try to put it into practice?

Their course within the past four years, and the progress they have made in securing offices negatives that. They cover the field now from constable to Congress and their aspirations both as to the size and number of offices will be limited only by the ability to reach and take them in.

Didn't the colored bishop who talked with the New York man who was quoted by the New York Sun, a Republican paper, furnish pretty strong corroborative testimony of the negro's aspirations and opportunities to rule when, referring to the number of negroes holding office in Craven county and in Eastern North Carolina, he said "Eastern North Carolina is the place for the negro"?

Who is the better authority on what the negro wants, Cy. Thompson, or Geo. H. White, "Prof." Ike Smith, John C. Dancy, and this colored bishop? Here are four who speak by racial authority, from a racial standpoint, against one outsider—who simply runs one of the Republican party in Liverpool—who speaks by no authority at all.

But the Hon. Cy. negatives his own utterance. If the negro doesn't desire to rule, why does Cy. waste his breath on the empty declaration that he is "opposed to negro domination?" Where is the need or the sense of declaring against a thing which does not, according to Cy., exist, of which there is no danger, and which the negroes themselves do not desire? This is fighting windmills. In this case a battle of windmills, one windmill against another.

But he negatives himself again when he admits that there are some things in the East which need remedying, and which will be remedied by his friends if they get back into the Legislature. The meaning of this, and the only meaning it can have, is that the negroes have gone too far in the East and must be held up, shown too much desire to rule where they have the numbers to rule, ihus, by Cy.'s own admission, flatly contradicting his statement as to their purposes.

But Cy. knows better. He was simply trying to fool somebody in becoming the self-constituted spokesman of the negro.

A REPUBLICAN REVOLT.

There has never been a political campaign in North Carolina since the organization of the Republican party in which so many Republicans have abandoned that party and announced their purpose to act and vote with the Democratic party in the coming election. Some of these are Northern men who were Republicans before coming to North Carolina, some of them native born North Carolinians who have for some years been voting with the Republican party and some of them men who have been supporting and voting with the Republican party ever since its organization, and were leaders in it.

Their reasons in brief are that the Republicans leaders have prostituted the party to their personal ends, have deserted their principles by forming a corrupt compact with the Populist leaders, and between them have turned over a large part of the State to negro rule. We here with publish an extract from an open letter of Walter M. Byrd, of Montgomery county, addressed to Senator Pritchard. Mr. Byrd has been an active and leading Republican over since the organization of the party in this State. He thus arraigns Pritchard's duplicity and treachery, and washes his hands of the mercenary combine.

You doubtless remember that the first week of the existence of the present Legislature, when all of us had worked day and night for a whole week to get enough Populist members to stand to their bargain to re-elect you to the United States Senate, that, in answer to the sentiment of disgust at Populist duplicity, which rang in your ears from us all, you vowed that in the future you would "burst fa sion" and yet the Republicans of this the Seventh Congressional district, as well as other Congressional districts in the State, are called upon to support advocates of the coinage of silver at 16 to 1, which you with the rest of us, say would be a calamity to our country, in order that John Q. Holton, candidate for solicitor in this district, and a few candidates for Superior Court judge, might secure a few Populist votes. An attempt to sell out Republican voters and what you could not sell, give away.

This course was resolved on by you and other leaders of State reputation as early as last March and your dictation of an unprincipled policy has gone out to local leaders who have packed county conventions and thus constituted themselves leaders, who have and are working all manner of of deals with Populists, putting negroes in office and promising them more and better offices if they will support them, and because you have found that intelligent, self-respecting Republicans will not howl every time your diabolical and dirty henchmen hollow, you have asked the president for Federal troops to in timidate, if possible, as many Democrats as you will lose of self respecting Republicans who do not want to see their country ruled by negroes any more than they want to be dictated to by a lot of dirty, self-constituted leaders. Now, Senator if, on the 8th day of November next, you and your horde of vampires reap a whirl-wind, remember that you sowed the wind and that you can charge it all to men like myself, who have voted the Republican ticket all their lives, and in national politics will continue to do so, if the Republican party shall have principle enough to nominate decent men for Congress and for President.

As for myself, for the past thirty years my fights for the Republican party have been many and very bitter as the Democratic party of this (Montgomery) county, well knows, but so far as the county and State matters go, the Republican party will have to do without me.

It is very strange that a man of your intelligence would think that Republicans were all menials or fools, but then, men as good as you have been carried away by infatuation for negroes before, and all of them have sooner or later paid the penalty.

Hoping that this campaign will teach you to listen to your friends instead of your enemies, I am,

Very respectfully,
WALTER M. BYRD.

Mt. Gilead, N. C., Oct. 29.

Col. Thos. S. Lutterloh, of Cumberland county, who has been a leading Republican of that county ever since the war, publishes a letter in the Fayetteville Observer, in which he renounces his allegiance to the Republican party on the high ground that in the present emergency it is a "matter of patriotism rather than party loyalty," when "white men and property holders should get together." Ex-chairman J. B. Evans, of the Republican State committee, has been equally emphatic in denouncing the corrupt collusion with the Populist leaders, and he and Mr. Byrd and Col. Lutterloh voice the sentiments of all true, self-respecting, principle-loving white Republicans.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfied, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught, cold, which settled on her lungs, she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bott es, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at R. R. I am very well pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

WORK AND WATCH.

One of the hardest if not the hardest fought political campaign waged in this State since the war is now practically closed as far as forming the lines, public meetings, &c., are concerned and it now remains for the white men who are enlisted in the cause of white supremacy and honest, decent rule to work and watch, work to the end that every white man who is in sympathy with our cause casts his ballot and watch to the end that our unscrupulous and tricky opponents do not prostitute the ballot box and play any fraud upon us.

That is one of the methods on which they are counting to win. They have not only gone out of the State to import voters but they have drawn upon the graveyards for dead men and have rummaged through the census reports, the tax-lists, the city directories, and other records of names for the departed to bring them into service, when they can. To what extent they will play this will depend very much on the watch that is kept on the ballot box. A close, determined watch, may deter many of the fraudulently registered from casting their votes.

This is no ordinary election, involving merely economic issues or whether this or that man shall be elected to office. It rises high above that, for it involves and will decide the question as whether the white man or the black man is to be supreme in North Carolina and whether thirty counties in the State are to be put absolutely under negro domination. That is the issue to be decided by the ballots cast next Tuesday; it is so understood by both white and black, and a victory for the black man will mean the supremacy of the black man. It will be interpreted as an endorsement of all that he has done, of all that he has contended for, and does now contend for—the right to rule when he has the numbers and the power to rule.

It will also be construed as a vindication and endorsement of the mongrel legislation which put the negroes in office where they could dominate over the white man, and thus forced upon the white people the race issue, which they deprecate.

Aside from the question as to who shall be elected to office, decent white men or mercenary white men and negroes, there is not a white man, woman or child in the State who is not directly and vitally interested in the result of this election and there is not a white woman, or child old enough to understand the things it sees and hears, who is not praying to God that victory may crown the efforts of the white men of the State to protect them from insult and outrage, and praying that every white man in the State may be white enough, patriotic enough, race-respecting, self-respecting and family-loving enough to do his whole duty as a white man, patriot, father, husband or brother, that this dark cloud may be lifted from North Carolina, and this soul-disturbing question be forever settled.

White Men, Work! and Watch!

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by R. R. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by R. R. BELLAMY, Druggist. †

FRENCH GOWN OF SILK AND WOOL FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

BOLERO and Eton jackets in various modifications, as a part of the costume, are in equally good style as the long coats among the French models.

A little jacket, the shortest possible under the arm, is made of novelty silk-and-wool cloth in olive green and brown. The broad revers, making a sharp point at the bust, are trimmed with three black velvet cords and small buttons of velvet. The high collar, open to the top in front to produce a continuation of the full front of the waist, has the same little buttons as a decoration. The jacket has a pointed back and neck to repeat harmoniously the lines on the skirt, which is a new seven-gored model of tabac brown cloth whose width at the foot is four yards. Three velvet cords from a simple trimming for the bottom as well as for the edge of the circular peplum over-dress, which is attached to the skirt in yoke effect on the sides and the back and has a point each side of the front, with the side rounded away and sloping downward towards the back, lengthening in another deep point behind to the hem of the petticoat. The yoke is hooked invisibly at the back, and the tiny belt of velvet is held in place by a square buckle of brilliants.

Very odd is the "tulipe" sleeve, one of the latest Paris models. This sleeve is made in two sections, separated slightly along the outside of the arm, disclosing an under-sleeve. The top of the sleeve within also appears in a puff effect from which the outer top rolls back. These divisions overlap at the wrist and fall over the hands in points. Such a sleeve admits of many pleasing combinations in color, fabric and trimming. The proper cut of this gown can be obtained only from the cut-paper patterns published by HARPER'S BAZAR, when the gown appears.

Quantity of material—plain goods, 52 inches wide, 5 yards; novelty goods, 42 inches wide, 3½ yards

I mind the day I'd wished was a say gull flyin far,

And I'd wish I was a little rose as sweet as roses are,

You'd maybe take and wear it on your breast.

I'd wish I could be livin near, to love you day and night,
To let no throuble touch you or annoy.
I'd wish I could be dyin here, to rise a spirit light,
So them above 'ud let me bring you joy,
Mavrone!
If them above 'ud let me win you joy.

And now I wish no wishes, but only tell it here,
Nor take a thought beyont the way I'm to be,
I mind the day that's overbye and bless the day that's here.
There be to come a day when we'll be dead,

Bills Which Must Be Passed.

In congress every member finds himself at one great disadvantage, which length of service may diminish but can never entirely take away, and that disadvantage arises from the lack of local knowledge as to faroff states. We may be a homogeneous nation, but we are certainly not lacking in diversities.

The broad extent of the country, in more ways therefore than one, affects the legislative action of the house and also its methods of action.

In some of the smaller states all the business which is presented to the legislature is disposed of in some way or other. The committees report all bills and resolutions which are sent to them and both assemblies say "yes" or "no" directly or indirectly to them all.

In congress neither house attempts to do anything of the kind. The pigeonholes of all of the committees which are fortunate enough to have any business at all are found, at the end of the session and of congress, full of bills undisposed of. Thousands also of bills reported are left on the calendars without even the poor formality of being discussed, or even of being called up. In a word, congress, when it gets ready, adjourns, leaving the dead bills by the wayside.

Obviously there are some things which have to be done. There are bills which must be passed. Unless revenue is furnished, even the ordinary function of government would be at an end. So also if the revenues were not properly appropriated according to law, the government could not go on, for its continuance costs money. Hence, under the rules of the house, the committee of ways and means, having charge of bills raising revenue, and the committees on appropriations, obliged to provide for the expenditure of revenue, have a right of way which is thorough and complete. Whenever the house desires to take up such bills there is neither let nor hindrance. The country therefore can be sure that its necessities are provided for.—Hon. T. B. Reed in North American Review.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and rebbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bot. at R. R. Bellamy's Drug Store. | †

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, November 5.—The cotton market opened steady, with prices unchanged to one point higher, but soon became feverish and lower under liquidation by tired local longs, started by estimates for another heavy movement to all points in the cotton belt and increased crop estimates. Bear enthusiasm, however, was conspicuous by its absence. In fact, several of the season's leading shorts were seen to be quietly taking profits. The few orders received from abroad were chiefly for the purchase of January and March contracts. New Orleans sold in a small way. A considerable portion of to-day's business consisted of trades for the evening up of old ventures by those parties fearing possible political changes abroad over Sunday in regard to the China question as well as the relations with Spain. Later in the forenoon the market for futures turned slightly bullish and prices moved up slowly on the call support and absence of sellers. The close was steady at a net gain of 1 to 2 points. Estimated receipts at the ports for the day 57,000 bales against 57,710 last week and 66,759 last year. Estimated receipts at the ports for the week 450,000 against 466,122 last week and 405,835 last year. "CONTEMPTIBLE PIE HUNTERS."

This Is What Butler Called Those Who Favored Co-Operation in 1897.

Here is what Marion Butler said in his paper, the Caucasian, in February, 1897:

"The co-operation of the Populists and Republicans in this State has been a dismal and disastrous failure. Only the contemptible pie-hunters see any good in it."

If you do not believe Marion Butler's paper said this, ask him whether it did or not. He dare not deny it.

If "co-operation" had no "good in it" in 1897, is there "any good in it" in 1898, when Negro Domination is staring us in the face?

What Marion Butler said in the Caucasian in 1897, is exactly what every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

MORE NEGRO SCOUNDRELISM.

Black Beasts Attempt to Outrage the Young Daughter of a Respectable Farmer.

HER FATHER SWEARS TO IT

Attacked On the Public Highway in Brunswick County While Returning From Sunday School—Her Screams Saved Her From a Fate Worse Than Death.

Joseph Gore is an honest and respectable farmer of the county of Brunswick—poor in this world's goods, but esteemed by his neighbors. He has a wife and children, and there is a church and Sunday school near his home which are attended by his family. But he lives in a township where the negroes outnumber the whites more than three to one. This, coupled with the fact, no doubt, that Brunswick county is under Republican-Fusion rule, emboldened two beastly negroes to make an attempt to outrage a young girl on the public road as narrated in the following affidavit:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
County of Brunswick.

Personally appeared before me, Geo. H. Bellamy, a Justice of the Peace for Town Creek township, Brunswick county, Joseph Gore, who, being duly sworn, states: "Some days ago my daughter, aged 15 years, was returning from Sunday School, accompanied by her little brother, aged 12 years, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. When about a quarter of a mile from home, two negro boys, aged about 16 to 18 years, ran after my daughter, with their coats turned over their heads to conceal their identity, and attempted to take hold of her, and doubtless would have placed their unholy hands on her person; and had it not been for her screams would have doubtless accomplished their purpose. This was done in Town Creek township, in broad daylight. The villains have not yet been detected.

Signed, "JOSEPH GORE."

Signed and sworn to before me this 19th day of September, A. D., 1898.
GEO. H. BELLAMY, J. P.

White men of Brunswick county, can you stand that? Is there one left in the borders of your county who will not now vote against every candidate who consorts with negroes, and who is dependent on them for election? Has it come to this, that your daughters cannot attend church or Sunday school without having a body-guard to protect them from the lustful black brutes who roam through your county?

Rise in your might, white men of Brunswick. Assert your manhood. Go to the polls and help stamp out the last vestige of Republican-Populist-Negro Fusion.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of it by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for womanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is oftimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life of any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time."

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898.
JOHN D. TAYLOR,
Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

B. G. Worth, of the Worth Co.; R. W. Hicks, wholesale grocer; C. E. Borden, president of Navassa Guano Co.; W. L. DeRosset, commander of N. C. Division Confederate Veterans, and John C. Springer, of the firm of W. E. Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

Affiants further say that John N. Goins, business manager, L. D. Manly, foreman, John T. Howe, general travelling agent, and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and Republicans, and the said John T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897.

Boils,
Old Running Sores,
Itching, Scratching
Eczema,
Blood Poison,

Producing the following symptoms: Falling Hair, Sore Throat, Swollen Glands, Eruptions, Pustules and Ulcers of the Skin, Stiffness of the Joints, Rheumatism, Bone Pains, etc.

Ulcers, Scrofula,
Running Sore Eyes
Are cured by
BOTANIC BLOOD BALM (B. B. B.)
The Great Blood Remedy.

The above named diseases are all due to diseased germs floating around in the blood. These germs make their appearance in the form of sores on the body at the point of least resistance. To effect a cure the poison must be got out of the blood.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is the only remedy which has really effected a permanent cure of these terrible diseases. B. B. B. is a powerful vegetable Blood remedy, which, when it mixes with the diseased blood, causes the humors and germs to leave the body through the pores of the skin and excretory organs. Mr. B. F. Price, a Philadelphia druggist, recently wrote us that when people afflicted with Blood Diseases called for a remedy he invariably advised them to use B. B. B., taking the medicine regularly, and he never knew of a case that failed of a permanent cure. It has been on the market now for 17 years, and we have recent letters from patients who were cured years ago, saying that they are as well as can be at the present time, with no trace of the disease left. This proves that the poison was entirely driven out of the system, and hence a permanent cure effected. It is the cure that counts. We will let some of the patients speak for themselves.

ECZEMA CURED BY B. B. B.

Julia E. Johnson, Stafford's P. O., S. C., says: "I had suffered thirteen years with eczema, and was at times confined to my bed. The itching was terrible. My son-in-law got me one-half dozen bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, which entirely cured me, and I ask you to publish this, for the benefit of others suffering in like manner."

BLOOD POISON CURED BY B. B. B.

MAXEY, GA., Jan. 6.

"For twelve years I suffered from blood poison. My face and shoulders became a mass of corruption, and the disease began to eat my skull bones. It was said I must surely die, but I tried a bottle of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) with benefit, and seventeight or ten bottles more I became sound and well, and have been so for twelve months. Hundreds of scars can be seen on me, and I extend heartfelt thanks for so valuable a remedy." ROBERT WARD."

OFFENSIVE ULCERS CURED BY B. B. B.

"One Summer, several years ago, while railroading in Mississippi, I became badly affected with malarial blood poison, that impaired my health for more than two years. Several offensive ulcers appeared on my legs, and nothing seemed to give permanent relief until I took six bottles of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.), which cured me entirely.
M. D. LANE, Deveraux, Ga."

TEXAS SCROFULA CURED.

DEXTER, TEXAS, March 16.

"BLOOD BALM CO.: We had a case of scrofula in our neighborhood of long standing, who had used all patent medicines which were recommended to him; besides this, he also had several doctors attending him, but everything failed to effect any good. He grew worse every day, and had not left his bed for the last six months. His name is Servenka, and we got a neighbor of his to persuade him to try Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.), and after using only one bottle he left his bed for the first time in six months.

"To the present time he has used less than three bottles, and he is walking around visiting his friends in the neighborhood. All scrofulous sores are healing finely, and you never saw a happier man than he is.

"Nearly everybody for miles around has heard of this wonderful cure, and all who need a blood remedy call for the B. B. B.
LIEDKE BROS., Merchants."

More testimonials of the wonderful cure of Blood Diseases by B. B. B. are printed in a little book on Blood Diseases, which is sent free of charge to any one. B. B. B. is for sale by all druggists at $1.00 per large bottle. It cures the smallest pimple to the worst case of scrofula or Blood Poison. Six bottles of B. B. B. sent, charges prepaid, to any one on receipt of $5.00. Address,

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6.

ELECTIONS NEXT TUESDAY.

Congressmen Will be Voted For in Forty-two States—State Officers in Thirty-one.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, November 5.—There will be elections in forty-two States Tuesday—in Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming. In all of them, Arkansas, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Rhode Island and Virginia, only Congressmen will be voted for. In two, North Carolina and West Virginia, Congressmen and a Legislature.

In addition to West Virginia, twenty-two other States, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wyoming and Wisconsin elect a Legislature, which will choose a United States Senator.

In thirty-one States, a Governor and a full or partial set of State offices are at stake. The following elect a Governor: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

In Illinois, Iowa, Florida, Delaware, Missouri, Montana, Ohio, Utah and Washington, one or more minor State officers, Treasurer, Auditor or Justice of the Supreme Court, have been contended for.

NORTH CAROLINA CAMPAIGN.

Chairman Simmons Claims Both Houses of the Legislature and at Least Five Congressmen—Republican Claims.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 5.—The Democrats closed their campaign to-day with large rallies in nearly every county. There is great enthusiam and a universal belief among Democrats that their judicial ticket and a majority of both houses of the State legislature will be elected.

The Republicans are inclined to concede the lower house, but claim that they will elect their judicial ticket, at least eight of the nine Congressmen and a majority of the State Senators. The Republican State chairman, A. E. Holton, declined to make a statement more specific than this. The Democratic State chairman, F. M. Simmons, gave out a statement this evening in which he says: "We will elect both branches of the Legislature; the House by a large majority and the Senate by a good, safe working majority. I have received a poll from all parts of the State and there is no doubt of our success. Of the Congressional ticket, we will elect Small in the First, Kitchin in the Fifth, Bellamy in the Sixth, Klutz in the Seventh, Crawford in the Ninth There is a fighting chance in the three other districts. I believe Atwater will be elected from the Fourth."

Asked if the election would pass off peaceably, Mr. Simmons said: "I hope so. There is considerable excitement in some sections of the State, but this is more a determination on the part of the white people to put an end to negro rule than any disposition to do violence."

Chairman Simmons added that he had issued specific instructions to be on guard against attempts to vote negroes not legally entitled to vote.

THE OUTLOOK IN VIRGINIA.

Chairman Ellyson Says It is as Encouraging as the Most Ardent Democrat Could Desire.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 5.—The Virginia elections on Tuesday next are for Congressmen only, save that one or two members of the State Senate and House of Delegates will be returned to fill unexpired terms in the present General Assembly. The legislative elections have no significance, as a United States Senator will not be elected until a new General Assembly shall have been chosen in November of next year. The congressional campaign has been the most spiritless in years, except in the Ninth district, where Rhea, Democrat, opposes Walker, Republican incumbent, and in the Tenth district, where the candidates are Quarles, Democrat, and Hubbard, Republican. No question seems to be raised as to the return of Jones from the First, Young from the Second, Lamb from the Third, Epes from the Fourth, Otey from the Sixth, Hay from the Seventh and Rixey from the Eighth district. All of these are Democrats. State Democratic Chairman Ellyson said to-night;" The outlook in Virginia is as encouraging as the most ardent Democrat could desire. We will certainly elect EIGHT out of the TEN Congressmen. The Ninth and Tenth are the only closely contested districts, and I believe that the chances are in favor of our carrying these, making a solid Democratic delegation from the Old Dominion. Those in touch with Republican headquarters, however, claim that the Republicans will carry the Ninth and Tenth districts, and probably the Fifth, in which Swanson, the Democratic incumbent, is opposed by Parr, Republican. Neither side is inclined to give figures.

The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Surplus reserve decreased $7,068,500; loans increased $11,612,500; specie decreased $3,917,700; legal tenders decreased $1,272,100; deposits increased $7,513,200; circulation increased $95,300.

MARIA TERESA LOST AT SEA.

Foundered in a Gale Last Tuesday Night off the Bahama Islands.

ALL ON BOARD WERE SAVED.

Officers and Crew Landed at Charleston by the Wrecking Tug Merritt—Much Valuable Material Saved by the Wreckers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov 5.—The Maria Teresa was lost during a heavy gale Tuesday night thirty miles north of Walting Island in the Bahamas. She sunk in two thousand six hundred fathoms of water. All the crew were saved.

A thrilling story of the loss of the cruiser Maria Teresa is given in the official report of Lieutenant Commander Harris to the Secretary of the Navy, received by telegraph at the Navy Department late this afternoon.

During the progress of raising the ship a great deal of valuable material was recovered by the wreckers. Just what this amounts to is not positively known, but it includes expensive guns, torpedoes and much material of value. The opinion is expressed that with the material raised from the Teresa and from the other ships which have been operated upon so far, the Navy Department will be able to reimburse itself fully for the outlay of $800 per diem to the contractors.

It may be that the loss reported today will strengthen the hands of Constructor Hobson, who is urgently pleading with the department to allot money to enable him to conduct operations in wrecking the vessels on his own account, or it may induce the department to offer more liberal terms to the contractors, but however that may be, the present disposition of the department is, as already stated, to raise the Colon, to bring her to the United States, to place her under the American flag and to attach her to the United States navy.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov 5.—The wrecking tug I. J. Merritt arrived at quarantine here last night with 114 officers and crew of the cruiser Maria Teresa that foundered in a severe storm thirty milrs north of San Salvador Tuesday evening on board. The tug was detained at quarantine last night and did not come up to the city until mid-day. When she tied up at her dock here all of the survivors of the Teresa were given shore liberty. There were 114 of them, officers and men, and while many of them were half naked they were as happy and jolly a party as one could wish to see. There was an enormous crowd gathered at the Central wharf when they landed and the people of the city did everything in their power for the shipwrecked marines.

Lieutenant Commander I. E Harris, U. S N., at once made a full report to the department of the disaster. The officers and men remained in the city throughout the day. At 5 o'clock this afternoon the entire party started North. The men all go to Norfolk, their original destination, where they will be rejoined by the Merritt, which will leave here to-morrow morning. Before leaving the wharf for the train this afternoon Commander Harris lined his men up and after having called the roll and found that all hands were accounted for, he said: "Boys if it had not been for the I. J. Merritt and her gallant men, we would not be here to-day. I call for three cheers for the Merritt." The cheers were given with a will. Then some one called for cheers for Commander Harris and Capt. Chittenden and they were given heartily. Commander Harris was the last man to leave the Maria Teresa.

FIFTEEN PERSONS KILLED.

Collapse of a Building in Course of Construction in Detroit, Mich.—Thirty-five Men in the Ruins.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DETROIT, MICH., November 5.—The new five-story Wonderland theatre building is to-night in a hopeless looking state of collapse, and fifteen or more lives have been sacrificed by an appalling accident, which occurred there this afternoon. Shortly before 2 o'clock, while thirty-five men were at work in various parts of the half-finished theatre, a portion of the structure—the roof—fell in without a second's warning. Nearly every workman was carried down into the theatre pit. The front wall of the building remained practically intact, but the east side wall bulged and buckled threateningly.

Notwithstanding the latter danger, work of rescuing the injured and taking out the dead was rushed and good progress was made until 5.15, when the upper portion of the east wall fell, a shower of bricks striking around the crowd of laborers, officers and newspaper men, extinguishing the temporary electric lights, and causing a stampede for the street. Fortunately none of those who was struck by the second downfall was seriously injured.

Mayor Maybury and other city officials who were on the scene thereupon decided not to further imperil life in order to save bodies, and work was suspended until to-morrow.

Eighteen injured men were taken to various hospitals. Of those injured two are not likely to recover.

The cause of the catastrophe has not yet been definitely settled. It seems to rest, however, between too much weight on the roof and faulty steel beams used in its construction. The police have secured a number of the broken girders to be used as evidence later.

THE NEW YORK CAMPAIGN.

Five State Tickets in the Field—Features of the Canvass—Roosevelt's Vigorous Work.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—There are five State tickets in nomination in New York, as follows: Republican, Democrat, Citizens Union, Socialist Labor, and Prohibition. The Citizens Union vote is an altogether unknown quantity, probably important only if that of the two old parties shall be close; that of the Socialist Labor party may approximate 20,000, while the Prohibition vote has not often been much in excess of 10,000, in a total sometimes as high as 1,400,000. Besides State officers there will be elected on Tuesday next a Legislature that will choose a United States Senator to succeed Edward Murphy, Jr., Democrat. Thirty-four representatives in Congress will also be elected.

The Republican campaign has been an aggressive one, and notable for the energy with which Colonel Roosevelt has conducted his canvass. In one week—the last week of October—he traversed the State from east to west and from west to east, delivering close upon one hundred addresses, some of them of considerable length. To all appearances he aroused a great deal of enthusiasm. Judge Van Wyck pursued a very different course. His public addresses have not exceeded ten and these were delivered at such places as Buffalo, Rochester, Utica, Elmira, Albany and New York.

The Democratic candidates for State offices and for Congress persistently refused to be led into discussion of the currency or other national issues.

The State Senate has a membership of fifty and the Assembly of one hundred. As at present constituted, there is a Republican majority of twenty-eight on joint ballot. Senator Murphy, who is a candidate for re-election, has had charge of the Democratic legislative campaign. The Republicans are disposed to concede a reduction of their majority in the Legislature, but profess a confidence that they will have a working majority in both houses.

Democrats confidently expect to gain three or more Congressmen in districts below the Harlem river, and possibly as many in up-State districts. Republicans do not feel sanguine of maintaining the preponderance of twenty-eight as against six Democrats in the New York delegation.

The registration in Greater New York this year, while not as heavy as last year, gives promise of a large vote.

FLORIDA IS DEMOCRATIC.

Whites in Closer Unity—All the State Ticket Will be Elected and Nearly Every Legislator.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Nov. 5.—On Tuesday Florida will elect two justices of the Supreme Court, three members of the Railroad Commission, a State Treasurer, a Legislature which will meet in April and name a successor to Senator Pasco, and two Congressmen to succeed M. Sparkman in the First district and R. W. Davis in the Second. Both are Democrats, and each has been nominated to succeed himself. Their only opponents are E. R. Gunley and Herbert Anderson, both Republicans. The Populists have no ticket in the field. Gunley and Anderson are white Republicans of more than average intelligence. In Florida the causes influencing the return of the Populists and gold Democrats to the old party are in a less degree those obtaining in North Carolina. Joseph E. Lee, the negro leader of the Florida Republicans, has recently been elevated to the highest Federal office in the State—collector of internal revenue—and this fact has not only alienated and made lukewarm the "lily whites," but has as well had its influence in cementing the whites of the State in closer unity. All of Florida's Democratic State ticket will be elected and almost every member of the State Legislature and Senate. Florida's educational qualifications—the Australian ballot—is an insurmountable barrier to misrule.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

No Change in the Political Outlook—Nominees at the Democratic Primaries Will be Elected.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 5.—The last few weeks has brought no change in the political outlook in this State. The people are not worrying themselves about the result in South Carolina for the simple reason that the new suffrage clause of the constitution and the registration based thereon leave no opportunity nor possible chance for the election of other than the nominees of the Democratic primarie. There are no other State or county tickets in the field than the regular Democratic. In each congressional district the Republicans have put up a candidate and urged all their forces to go to the polls presenting themselves and have men there to take note of the refusals of managers to allow them to vote. The idea is to base contests before Congress on the constitutionality of the suffrage clause, just as was done two years ago. In each congressional district there are but two candidates, one for each of the parties named. There was an independent candidate in the first district, but he has withdrawn in the last few days.

REV. DR. MOSES D. HOGE.

Seriously Hurt While Out Driving in Richmond, Va.

RICHMOND, VA., November 4.—Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge, the distinguished and aged Presbyterian divine, was out driving to-day, and when about to turn the corner of Madison and Main streets, his buggy came in contact with a street car on the Main street line. The occupant of the vehicle was knocked out and dragged for ten feet. An examination by the physicians to-night showed Dr. Hoge's injuries to be much more serious than was at first supposed. Two of his ribs are broken, his ankle injured, his face cut in two places, and his body badly bruised. He has been spitting blood freely, but the physicians are not yet able to say whether this results from the broken ribs or internal injury. The shock is very great, but Dr. Maguire thinks the eminent divine will be up again in six weeks.

Dr. Hoge, who is over eighty years old, was quite ill during the Summer. He spent some time at the White Sulphur, and grew much better after spending some weeks in the mountains, and when this accident occurred to-day was about as well probably as he has been during the past year.

WAR REGARDED AS INEVITABLE.

General Belief in England That an Armed Struggle With France is Near.

INFORMATION IS CURTAILED.

Officials Have Strict Orders Not to Talk. Movements of Naval Vessels Suppressed—Work Continues Actively and Silently.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, November 5.—A majority of the people here are convinced that war between Great Britain and France is inevitable, sooner or later. The general feeling in the country is such as would endorse any warlike action on the part of the government. In any case, work at the arsenals and dockyards actively and silently continues, and information on the subject has been curtailed to an unprecedented point.

All the officials have strict orders not to talk. The British admiralty has suspended its daily announcements of the movements of British ships abroad, and the naval men express the opinion that such far-reaching preparations mean something far more than a naval demonstration.

PARIS PEACE COMMISSION.

Spaniards Show a Willingness to Negotiate as to the Philippines—The Way Open to a Compromise.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, November 5.—The reports that the State Department has received from the peace commission in Paris indicate that that body has proceeded in exactly the line anticipated, consequently the action of yesterday was not a disappointment. It was fully expected that the Spanish commissioners would endeavor to make better terms than those offered by the American commissioners. It was not expected that they would close at once with the American proposition. While they have not in exact terms submitted a counter proposition, the Spaniards, by entering upon the argument of the American proposition, have shown a disposition to negotiate relative to the Philippines that has shown to be erroneous the prediction that they would indignantly spurn any proposition that contemplated a relinquishment of Spanish sovereignty over the archipelago. It is quite probable the way is now open to a compromise between the two sides and that a monetary difference will be found to be the only one of substance, it is believed, represented by the difference between about $40,000,000, probably the maximum allowance which the United States will be willing to pay Spain for the improvements in the Philippines, and $200,000,000, which represents about the minimum of the Spanish claim for compensation on account of the cession of the entire group.

AFFAIRS IN CRETE.

British Admiral Compels the Embarkation of Turkish Troops.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CANDIA, ISLAND OF CRETE, Nov. 5.—Rear Admiral Gerard Henry Noel, British commander in these waters, today ordered the Turkish troops whose embarkation was delayed by an order from Constantinople, to embark on a British transport. The soldiers proceeded to obey, but the Turkish officer in command stopped the embarkation, whereupon the British admiral caused the barracks to be surrounded and declared the Turks prisoners. He also threatened to use force to compel them to embark. The Turkish commanding officer then allowed the embarkation to proceed.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

Democratic Success in Next Tuesday's Election Assured. All Confident.

AN UNCONFIRMED REPORT.

That a Republican Senatorial Ticket Will be Voted for in New Hanover County Next Tuesday—The Campaign Closed.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov 5.

Nothing can now prevent Democratic success; all are confident and the Democrats have only to wait for next Tuesday to roll around.

Your correspondent knows of a letter from a Fusion candidate in Halifax county, in which he concedes that Halifax will go Democratic. The Fusionists have also given up Edgecombe and Pitt counties.

Populist candidate Atwater is here this morning, enroute to Chatham. He will close his campaign in Smithfield Monday. He is confident of success.

Mr. James Pou has just closed a telling campaign in Randolph and the county will go Democratic by over 300 majority.

A large crowd left to day for Burlington to attend the grand rally there. Maj. Guthrie is one of the principal speakers.

Six Fusion Populists, at the place where Mr. E. W. Pou spoke yesterday, repudiated Fusion and came out for the white man's party. Each day swells the Democratic majority.

Many Fusionists now admit the defeat of their ticket in Wake.

[Special Star Telegram.]

An unconfirmed report, in Republican circles, says a Republican Senatorial ticket will be voted for in New Hanover Tuesday. Chairman Holton refused to talk on the matter. Two Republicans stated to-night that a ticket would be placed in New Hanover as a result of Keith's withdrawal.

RICHMOND COUNTY.

A Good Majority for the Democrats Assured—The Red Shirts.

[Special Star Telegram.]

LAURINBURG, N. C., November 5.—All places of business in Laurinburg will be closed at 4 o'clock on Monday, and every man will put on his red shirt to wear it until old North Carolina has been redeemed. Richmond county will give a good round majority. There is no way to prevent the whites of Richmond from having their own after Tuesday next. Republicans and the one or two remaining Populists concede this.

The political campaign in the Congressional districts of Louisiana closed without startling incidents and the indications are that a solid Democratic delegation will be elected to Congress.

Democratic campaign managers claim that Alabama will be represented by a solid Democratic delegation in the next Congress. Only two districts, the fourth and seventh, were ever in doubt.

These are among the most popular Bulbs for Winter, blooming in the conservatory or window garden. The Bulbs seem small in comparison with the foliage and flower spikes; the flowers are delightfully fragrant and after being cut and placed in water remain in good condition a long time. Four to six Bulbs may be planted in a four inch pot. Growth commences at once so they need not be set away to form roots like the Hyacinths.
